Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Acts 2:14, 22-33
Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words.

Reading 2: 1 Peter 1:17-21
Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Third Sunday of Easter

Today marks the Third Sunday of Easter.

The First Reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 22-33 and concerns bearing witness to the "name" of Jesus, and the implications which this witnessing necessarily brings with it. Peter and the apostles answered their inquisitors by stating firmly their faith in Christ, and the lesson ends with reference to their joy at having been found worthy to endure trials for the name of Christ. —A Celebrant's Guide to the New Sacramentary, A Cycle by Kevin W. Irwin

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of Peter 1:17-21. St. Peter says that we are sons of God because of his infinite mercy in sending Christ to us as our brother. So we can rightly call God our "Father." But we must behave as true, loyal sons, during our "time of exile" on this earth, for our merciful Father is also the absolutely just God who will judge each one of us "impartially according to our deeds" when we lay down our earthly life. —A Guide to the Eucharist and Hours—Lent by Kevin W. Irwin

The Gospel is from St. Luke 24:13-35. It is the first day of the week after the great Jewish feast of the Passover and Jerusalem is trying to return to its normal routine. The shop keepers count their profits and the Temple priests congratulate themselves because they were able to kill the 'Galilean'. For the disciples and those who were 'foreigners' in Jerusalem, it is time to start to return to their own homes and their normal lives.

ATTENTION PLEASE: The asphalt cost for our Parking Lot Project will increase due to the Oil Crisis. Like our gas prices are soaring high, the asphalt manufacturing depends on oil.

The contractor's stated their costs for producing asphalt has to increase and will be going up. Our Parish Construction Bids for this repair were extended since last November are soon to expire. New Bids will increase our expenses and costs. We need to complete the fundraising with donations and pledges as soon as possible. Any delies could forfeit our present costs for this repair. Please help and keep the present costs for the Parking Lot Project.
