Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Acts 2:14a, 36-41
Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Reading 2: 1 Peter 2:20b-25
Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps. He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.

Gospel: John 10:1-10
Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it from him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out."

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Today marks the Fourth Sunday of Easter, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday.

The First Reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 36-41 and if taken together with that of the following Sunday provides an alternative theme in exploring the preaching of the early Church in the persons of Paul and Barnabas. The mission first to the Jews is now to be placed second to the mission to the Gentiles,—a theme which the reading for next Sunday also explores with the warning of the preachers that those who follow the Lord will necessarily have to endure trial and sufferings. —A Celebrants Guide to the New Sacramentary—Cycle A by Kevin W. Irwin

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of Peter 2:20-25. In these verses today, St. Peter is giving advice to Christians who were slaves. He tells them to be submissive to their masters with all respect.

The Gospel is from St. John 10:1-10. One of the oldest paintings of Christ, in the Roman catacombs, represents Christ as carrying the injured, straying sheep gently on His shoulders back to the sheepfold. This is an image of Christ which has always appealed to Christians. We have Christ as our shepherd—He tells us so himself in today's gospel—and we do not resent being called sheep in this context. There is something guileless about a sheep, and at the same time a lot of foolishness! But with Christ as our shepherd and the "good shepherd" who is sincerely interested in the true welfare of His flock we have reason to rejoice.

ATTENTION PLEASE: The asphalt cost for our Parking Lot Project will increase due to the Oil Crisis. Like our gas prices are soaring high, the asphalt manufacturing depends on oil.

The contractor's stated their costs for producing asphalt has to increase and will be going up. Our Parish Construction Bids for this repair were extended since last November are soon to expire. New Bids will increase our expenses and costs. We need to complete the fundraising with donations and pledges as soon as possible. Any delies could forfeit our present costs for this repair. Please help and keep the present costs for the Parking Lot Project.
