WEEKLY PRAYER

Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Acts 2:1-11
When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Reading 2: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

Gospel: John 20:19-23
On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Pentecost Sunday

Today marks Pentecost Sunday.

The First Reading is from Acts 2:1-11. "Pentecost" which means "fiftieth" was the second of the three most important of the annual feasts in the Jewish calendar. It occurred seven weeks after Passover and was primarily a feast of thanksgiving for the harvest: the first-fruits of the wheat crop were offered to God on that day. Later on the giving of the Law to Moses on Mount Sinai was also commemorated on this feast day. All Jewish men, not legitimately impeded, were expected to come to Jerusalem, to the temple, for the feast. Hundreds of Jews from outside of Palestine also came, and the city was usually full to overflowing. It was very fitting therefore that this feast day was chosen for the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles..

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 12:2-7, 12-13. The gifts of the Holy Spirit were very evident in the infant Church. This was necessary to prove to the pagans that the Christian religion was from the real God who controlled all things. The God of the Christians had real powers and they were distributed freely by the Holy Spirit when occasion demanded. St. Paul is emphasizing that these gifts are not given to an individual for his honor or glory but to help to build up the Church..

The Gospel is from John 20:19-23. This Gospel, which was first read on the Second Sunday of Easter, is repeated here today, the feast of the Holy Spirit, because on that first appearance of the risen Lord he conferred the Holy Spirit on the Apostles. Today's feast commemorates the solemn public and publicized conferral of the same Holy Spirit.

God the Father created us with the intention and plan to raise us up to adopted sonship with him. God the Son took human nature so that we might share in the divinity. Representing all men he gave perfect obedience and reverence to the Creator "even unto death on a cross," and thus merited sonship for us. The Holy Spirit, the "fruit of divine love," came from Father and the Son to bring to perfection the work of our sanctification. Thus the three divine Persons of the Blessed Trinity have cooperated in the great work of infinite love and condescension which opens for us a future of unending happiness, if only we have the common sense to appreciate what has been done for us, and the simple common decency to do in return the few relatively easy little tasks asked of us.

We have already met 107.66% of our goal. This Annual Catholic Appeal supports many Diocesan programs including Catholic Schools and training for our seminarians in preparation for the diaconate/priesthood. If you would like to donate to this cause, please write 'Annual Catholic Appeal' in the memo section of your check or if you would like to give cash, please write down Annual Catholic Appeal on the outside of your envelope and you can either mail your donation to the parish or put it in the collection basket. Online Giving is also available. Please follow the steps listed here:

You may also go to <https://www.givecentral.org/aca-sd>; then go to 'Find Your Parish'; 'Select Your Parish - Holy Spirit - San Diego (11)' to make a secure online pledge or donation.

Thank you in advance for your generosity; any money that exceeds our assessment of $13,771 will be returned to the parish.

ATTENTION PLEASE: The asphalt cost for our Parking Lot Project will increase due to the Oil Crisis. Like our gas prices are soaring high, the asphalt manufacturing depends on oil.

The contractor's stated their costs for producing asphalt has to increase and will be going up. Our Parish Construction Bids for this repair were extended since last November are soon to expire. New Bids will increase our expenses and costs. We need to complete the fundraising with donations and pledges as soon as possible. Any delays could forfeit our present costs for this repair. Please help and keep the present costs for the Parking Lot Project.

Father Dickens will be on a pilgrimage between May 30th to June 9th. May we wish him safe travels during the pilgrimage and that God protects him and everyone else partaking in this journey.
