Thirteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

The First Reading is taken from the Second Book of Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a. The account of Elisha and the woman was a minor incident in the life of this prophet, who worked greater miracles, but it is narrated to show that God rewards those who are charitable to his friends. —The Sunday Readings

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 6:3-4, 8-11. St. Paul stresses that we are buried with Christ in baptism. We die with him to sin. Then we rise with him to a new life.

The Gospel is from St. Matthew 10:37-42. In the first part, Christ tells his representatives, his delegates the Apostles, and those who succeed them, that they must be prepared to undergo great sacrifices, even death itself, if called on to do so for the sake of Christ. Even though they had only a very vague idea then of what he meant, when the time came, they remembered his words and gladly suffered imprisonment, hardships, and finally martyrdom for Christ. This shows how the resurrection of Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit on them, changed them from worldly weaklings into fearless heroes. They had become convinced that Christ was the Son of God who had come on earth to bring all men to heaven. They came to realize how transitory, and unimportant, the few years of the earthly life were when compared with the eternal life of bliss to follow.

Farewell Announcement from Our Associate Pastor, Father Phien Pham

As of July 1, 2026, I will officially retire, having reached the age of 75.

I bid farewell to the parishioners of Holy Spirit Parish, where I have had the joy of living for the past ten years.

I wish to thank everyone in the parish for your love and support. I also ask for forgiveness from anyone I may have hurt; I am always mindful that I am a human being—frail, with limitations, and prone to error. May you always remain steadfast in Faith, fervent in Charity, and persevering in Hope in Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior.

Let us continue to pray for one another.

In Jesus Christ's Love,

Fr. Joseph Phien Pham

WEEK OF COLLECTION

Today (June 28th-29th) is Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including the charitable works of Pope Leo XIV and the work of the Holy Father. Take the time to join with Pope Leo XIV to be a sign of hope for our suffering brothers and sisters. This will benefit out brothers and sisters who are on the margins of society, including victims or war, oppression and disasters. Be a sign of hope with your generosity. Thank you.
