Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."

Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Jeremiah 20:7-9
You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped; you were too strong for me, and you triumphed. All the day I am an object of laughter; everyone mocks me.

Reading 2: Romans 12:1-2
I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Twenty-second Sunday In Ordinary Time

The First Reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah 20:7-9 in which we hear Jeremiah giving voice to this internal anguish of mind; he hates what he has to say to his people, yet he is compelled by God to say it.

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 12:1-2 in which he tells the Roman Christians (converts, for the most part, from paganism) that they must prove themselves worthy of this great favor, they must live truly Christian lives.

The Gospel is from Matthew 16:21-27. From all eternity this was God's plan for mankind. But because sin had entered into the world before the Incarnation took place, the Son of God in his human nature had to suffer the violent death of the cross at the hands of sinners. In this very suffering he became the Lamb of God who took away the sins of the world, as the second-Isaiah had foretold in his "suffering servant" prophecies (Is. 53: 1-7; 42: 1-9 etc). His death, because he was God as well as man, was a sacrifice, an atonement, of infinite value, and therefore obtained forgiveness from the Father for all the sins of the human race.

In foretelling his sufferings and death, which took place some months later, Christ intended to prepare his disciples and other followers for what he knew would be for them a severe crisis of faith. He also took occasion from it to remind his disciples, and all others who would follow him, of what their attitude to suffering and death should be. He told them, and us too, that we must be ever ready to accept sufferings in this life, and even an untimely death if that should be demanded of us, rather than deny our Christian faith."

Church Parking Lot Project Updates

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our parish has already received $ 525,105.12 in donations toward the Parking Lot Project as of August 28th, 2026.

We need to raise an additional $55,000 to cover the plumbing/draingage problems that were unfortunately discovered underneath the parking lot and also to dispose of the petromat that was a major source of contamination to our parking lot. Our new goal is to raise this $55,000 by Friday, September 18th, 2026. We invite you and your families to donate to this cause if you haven't already done so and thank you to those of you who have already donated and please feel free to donate as well because donations are still being accepted for this project. Let's do this for the benefit of our future generations.

If you would like to donate to this cause, please feel free to do so and please remember to write on the outside of your envelope/on your check: 'Parking Lot'. Any donation regardless of the amount contributed is greatly appreciated and is tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law. Online Giving for the Parking Lot Project is now available! Please go to <https://www.holyspiritsd.com> to make your online donations, then click the Donate Button. Thank you in advance for your participation and support with this important parish project

If you would like to donate to this cause, please write 'Annual Catholic Appeal' in the memo section of your check or if you would like to give cash, please write down Annual Catholic Appeal on the outside of your envelope and you can either mail your donation to the parish or put it in the collection basket. Online Giving is also available. Please follow the steps listed here:

You may also go to <https://www.givecentral.org/aca-sd>; then go to 'Find Your Parish'; 'Select Your Parish - Holy Spirit - San Diego (11)' to make a secure online pledge or donation.

Thank you in advance for your generosity; any money that exceeds our assessment of $13,771 will be returned to the parish.

This is an Important Annoucement in Regards of the Parking Lot Project

Holy Spirit Parish, let us all come together right now!

There is little time and a lot of help is needed. The Parking Lot Project needs all of us to participate in finishing what we started. The emergency is a minimum of $55,000.

The 106 truck loads of asphalt are $450 each. They were mixed with Petromat and it cannot be recycled. It has to be disposed of properly when it is removed. As of this bulletin, we have 2 weeks to pay for the Main Sewer Line Repair, which has failed areas that need mandatory repairs. Sewage is currently going out of the pipes and leaking into the surrounding ground.

Send envelopes with "Parking Lot" written on it to the church with checks or go Online and make the donations on our website: holyspiritsd.com and go to the bottom of the page for Donations.

The parking lot has the asphalt replaced and the plumbing had to be installed first.

God Bless us all, and may the Holy Spirit Guide us we pray!

Sincerely,
Fr. Dickens Remy, Pastor
Fr. John Phan, Associate Pastor
